

Asset Tag Sticker

School owned computer equipment will have an asset tag sticker attached which indicates the school's name, bar code, and a unique 5-digit number. See below for an example. The sticker is normally located on the top of desktop computers and bottom of mobile computers. IT staff may use this 5-digit number when we communicate with customers to uniquely identity equipment.

